

GINSBURG INSTITUTE Summer Camp Experience

Do your children have summer camp costs? Your summer camp costs may be covered!

We're proud to support summer camp and enrichment opportunities for associates who meet income criteria. The program will provide financial assistance through partial and full scholarship packages.

- Household income must be under $80,375 for a family of 4
- Eligible children must be 5-12 years old
- 2024 or 2025 tax return required with application for a family of 4-6, please reference the table below

Number of Individuals on Tax Form	4	5	6
Annual Household Income Less Than	$80,375	$94,125	$107,875

Our Summer Camp Experience Program partners with the Central Florida YMCA and Camp J at Shalom Orlando.

Is Your Child Attending YMCA or Camp J?

- No payment required from associate
- The YMCA or Camp J will bill Ginsburg Institute directly

Is Your Child Attending a Local Summer Camp?

- Associates pay the camp directly
- Associates submit receipts to ginsburginstitute@nemours.org
- Reimbursements processed through payroll

Applications are accepted until April 30, 2026.

Associates will receive notification via email within two weeks of submitting a complete application.

Only completed applications will be considered.

How to Apply

Please scan the QR code or click here to access the application.

